

“Dirty” business in Bettendorf

On a beautiful spring morning about 30 people put on their gloves, rolled up their sleeves and armed themselves with a whole lot of garbage bags. The volunteers were getting ready to do their part to help clean up the city of Bettendorf. On Friday, April 29 the Quad Cities Chamber and the City of Bettendorf helped coordinate the Downtown Cleanup Day.

The event helped clean up garbage from around the I-74 bridge ramp in Bettendorf and surrounding areas. Roughly 30 bags of garbage were compiled in under 4 hours.

Ascentra Credit Union staff was quick to help; Matt DeBisschop, Amanda Alatorre, Missey Andrews and Joanne Boozer came dressed comfortably to get down and dirty. Ascentra Credit Union and the Quad Cities Chamber would like to thank them for their efforts in beautifying our community.

Pictured before the Downtown Cleanup began are Ascentra volunteers Missey Andrews, Matt DeBisschop, Joanne Boozer and Amanda Alatorre.