

Leader to Leader Breakfast (5/09)

On Wednesday April 29th the Quad Cities Chamber Federation held a breakfast to congratulate the recent graduates of the chamber's leadership academies.

Greg Aguilar from Ascentra Credit Union was elected by his class to speak on behalf of the community leadership class. Mr. Aguilar encouraged the graduates to nurture their lives and the lives of others to create better leaders in the community. Following the speeches all 5 mayors of the Quad Cities held an open panel discussion about the progress of each of their respected cities.
